

ADOLESCENT SEXUAL HEALTH PROMOTION AT A GLANCE

The following is an overview of the state of adolescent sexual health promotion efforts in Oregon in Fiscal Year (FY) 2012 including sexuality education state laws and policy, sexual health data, and federal funding.

STATE LEVEL SEXUALITY EDUCATION LAW AND POLICY OVERVIEW

Oregon mandates sexuality education in infectious diseases, including HIV/AIDS and sexually transmitted disease (STD) prevention, throughout elementary and secondary schools. Students in grades six-eight must receive instruction at least once annually, while students in grades nine-twelve must receive instruction twice annually. State law provides specific guidelines that communities must follow when creating plans, which must be developed locally by community members who are "knowledgeable of the latest scientific information and effective education strategies," approved by local school boards, and reviewed biennially in accordance with new scientific information. Parents or guardians may remove their children from school-based sexuality education and/or HIV/STD education classes ("opt-out"). For more information, see Oregon Revised Statutes §§ 336.035, 336.455, and 336.465; Oregon Administrative Rules §§ 581-022-1210 and 581-022-1440; and the Oregon Department of Education's "Sexuality Education and Risk Behavior Prevention" website.
